REPORT OF TOWN LIBRARY

---

The Church spire, the school house and the library are the most interesting objects one notices as they pass through the New England villages, representing as they do all that is grand, noble and inspiring in the community where they are found. We notice with a thought of sadness the passing of Mr. George Pillsbury, a trustee, whose name has been associated with the library from its beginning. Its prosperity and welfare was his greatest interest and much labor and time was given by him and his faithful sister Mrs. Webster in having charge of affairs.

The circulation was not quite so large as that of last year but the lack is due to the call of summer, so we always find the smallest numbers in vacation time.

In the great variety found in the selections of the year, certainly one could have something of interest to read either in biography, travel or history and art or one of the many pleasant stories.

Whole number of books loaned	8366
The largest number in December	875
The smallest number in August	500
Number of books repaired	1775
